

FOURTH ANNUAL JUNK FEST

Saturday, August 4, 2018

10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Rutland, North Dakota

Junk Fest is being held in conjunction with Rib Fest, an annual event in Rutland, ND, that draws several hundred people. Rutland has had success with Junk Fest the past three years thanks to The Little Old Ladies of Sargent County. They have passed on the torch and this year Sargent Central Ambassadors are holding the event. The SC Ambassadors are five youth who have been nominated by their band/choir directors to participate in the Northern Ambassadors of Music 2019 Summer Concert Tour. This is the start of their fundraising campaign.

Details for 2018 Junk Fest are:

1. Spaces are $50. Outdoor spaces are about 20'x20'. There are a limited number of indoor/non-air-conditioned spaces that are also $50. Indoor spaces are available on a first come/paid, first-served basis.
2. Food will be available during the day. City Hall will have a free-will garage sale where food will also be sold. The Senior Center will either have a Relay for Life Team selling food or the Rutland Auxiliary will be selling pie & ice cream (sorry, details not yet finalized due to Rib Fest change in start time).
3. Ribs are going to be served starting at 12:00 Noon. Dusty James River Band will start at noon. The rib judging will be at 5:00 p.m. and there will also be another evening band.
4. Setup starts at 8:00a.m. for junkers and farmers market participants.
5. Tables, chairs and tents (for outside) are not provided; bring your own.
6. Lodging is available at the Forman Inn & Suites in Forman, 701-724-4094 or 866-857-4094.
7. If interested, please complete and return the registration form. Return the form with payment to Sargent Central Ambassadors (or SC Ambassadors) to the address below.
8. Deadline is July 18th or until spaces are gone.

We hope you can bring your junk and join us!
